Passionate Gardeners Needed

Do you enjoy gardening? Would you like to take your skills to the next level? The Rutgers Master Gardener Program of Atlantic County is recruiting passionate and curious gardeners to be trained and then volunteer to assist Rutgers New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station (NJAES) Cooperative Extension in its mission to deliver horticulture programs and information to the general public. Applications are NOW being taken on a first come first serve basis. No experience necessary. Classes will be held in the evening from 5 p.m. – 8 p.m. The twenty weekly training sessions will begin Tuesday, January 9, 2018.

This is a unique program that we are pleased to offer to all residents of Atlantic County. For further information and/or an application please visit our website at www.rutgers-atlantic.org/garden or contact Anita Wagner at 625-0056 ext. 6123 between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

This message is sponsored by Rutgers Cooperative Extension of Atlantic County, New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station. For further information about available educational programs and other services, contact Rutgers Cooperative Extension of Atlantic County at (609) 625-0056.
